CAUSE

Within the past year, Ms. Brown has been cited on seven occasions for traffic violations, an obstruction of a public officer, and a harassment charge that was dismissed. Four of the traffic violations are still pending. These citations include: third degree driving while license suspended, operating a motor vehicle without insurance, and speeding. Ms. Brown has acknowledged this has become an ongoing problem. At the same time, she claims she has no other way of getting to and from work. Ms. Brown is currently working full-time at the Shell gas station in Selah, Washington. Ms. Brown is currently on temporary suspension from her part-time employment at Albertson's grocery store in Yakima, Washington, for not reporting a co-worker of taking videos from the store without paying.

In order to address the above-noted issues, Ms. Brown is in the process of getting signed up for the re-licensing program. She has also agreed to perform 20 hours of community service at a local nonprofit organization.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
